

That's Me!

Unci's what I call my dear grandmother
Tunkasila's grandfather's other name
Ina, my mother and her sisters,
Ate, is my father and his brother's just the same.

Tunwin's what I call all my aunties,
Leksi, every uncle that I see,
To some, I'm Wakanyeja, a child,
To others, Takoja, that's ME!

This song's about some of my relations—
people I can count on all the time.
Everybody needs to have a family
to remind them, everything will be just fine!

Everywhere I go I meet relations:
two legs, four legs, wings—we all connect!
I like to say, Mitakuye Oyasin!
Unci Maka we honor and respect.

Tunwin's what I call all my aunties,
Leksi, every uncle that I see,
To some, I'm Wakanyeja, a child,
But to Unci, Takoja, that's ME!
To Tunkasila, Takoja, that's ME!
We all make one big happy family!
